School has hunger day

Students at Condell Park High School raised $105 recently when they staged a hunger strike at the school.

The hunger strike was run in conjunction with the Freedom from Hunger Appeal and 1968 International Human Rights Year.

On a chosen day, christened 'D' Day — D for denial — pupils and staff voluntarily missed the lunch-time meal, and outstepped the natural road towards the trol.

By missing a meal, staff and pupils hoped the occasion would involve some personal sacrifice, rather than making the appeal an ordinary collection.

The plan was an outstanding success, and both staff and pupils are keen to make 'D' Day an annual event.

At lunch-break on the day, tables were set up in the school quadrangle and staffed by 12 collectors.

With the slogan: "Miss a Meal and Save a Life," pupils responded well and were supported by the entire staff, including principal, Mr. A. E. Byrne and deputy principal, Mr. H. A. Tierney.

Lining-up to make the contributions at the canteen, the staff and pupils were given a sheet of paper, printed with the slogan, after giving their donations.

Members of Condell Park High School committee for the recent hunger strike, called to raise money for Freedom from Hunger Appeal.

Mr. Byrne being presented with a booklet by Catherine Scott which depicted the "Denial Day" programme in an essay form of 20 photographs which was sent to Mr. C. Ebert (A/Dep. Director of Education).

THOSE WERE THE DAYS

A tribute to a departing Deputy Head.

1. Once upon a time there was a school,
Blessed with the finest Dep. you'd ever see;
Soon he's off as Boss to Miller High,
What will we do without our dear H. T. ?

CHORUS:

Those were the days, my friend, we thought they'd never end,
We'd hear his voice forever and a day,
We'd live the life we choose, we'd fight and always lose,
Those were the days, Oh yes, those were the days.
La, la, la, la, la-la, la, la, la, la-la,
Those were the days, Oh yes, those were the days.

2. Will he come back to see his old companions,
To stroll along the tree-lined concrete walks,
To reminisce upon the years he spent here,
And see the green-boards where he used to chalk?

CHORUS: Those were the days....etc.....

3. We hope the trees are tall at Miller High School,
Giving shade to pupils as they rest,
When he comes back to see us we will tell him
That Condell Park's are being fed with Zest.

CHORUS:

Those were the days, my friend, we thought they'd never end,
We'd water trees for ever and a day,
We'd see them grow so tall, and never mind at all,
Those were the days, Oh yes, those were the days.

4. If he should move along to greener pastures,
We hope he will be happy in his work;
And if the Miller Staff are poor attenders,
"In Lieu of's" will become the latest lurk.

CHORUS:

Those were the days my friend, we hope they'll never end,
We'll say farewell, but never say good-bye,
We hate to see you go, but in our hearts we know
That its the Job you love and not the dough.
La, la, la, la, la-la, la, la, la, la-la,
And so farewell, good luck and au revoir.

UNIVERSAL DECLARATION of HUMAN RIGHTS

ON DECEMBER 10, 1948, the General Assembly of the United Nations adopted and proclaimed the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, the full text of which appears in the following pages. Following this historic act the Assembly called upon all Member countries to publicize the text of the Declaration and "to cause it to be disseminated, displayed, read and expounded principally in schools and other educational institutions, without distinction based on the political status of countries or territories."

Each pupil was asked to go

Behind the queues there was a busy throng attaching "bags" containing the pupils name and the slogan as a gesture of his or her sacrifice.

One pupil can be seen writing her name before attaching the "bag" to the fence.
